Woman in Car Would Not Let Him Escape After Lad Six Years Old Had Been Run Down.

Returning from an errand of mercy John Moran, six years old, of No. 111 West Fifty-third street, was 10-day faially injured by an automobile. chauffeur attempted to run away, but after running a block was ordered back by the woman in the car.

The Moran boy had just taken a little dog to the Cat and Dog Hospital, in West Flity-third street, and was crossing to reach his home when the automobile dodged around a wagon and ran him down. When the chauffour had been ordered to return the child was carried into a doctor's office, where it was found his skull was fractured. The boy was taken to Roosevell Hospital. The chauffeur was raken to the West Forty-seventh street station. He is Robert Crammond, of No. 147 Americal and avenue, chauffeur for Mrs. Mc-Nelly, a dressmaker at Forty-fourth street and Madison avenue.
